Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a title or header, located in the center of the page.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu, spanning the length of the strip. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be underlined or emphasized. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical manuscript writing. The strip is divided into two main sections by two circular holes, suggesting it was once part of a bound volume or a chain of pages. The left section contains approximately 10 lines of text, while the right section contains approximately 15 lines. The text is written in a dark ink on a light-colored, aged paper or parchment.
